Front End Developer

PROFILE

From the moment I have produced "Hello world" in the console of my application, I knew I was hooked into the world of software development. But software development has never been "Just a bob" for me, it is offered an engaging challenges to continually learn and improve my skills in creating high-quality software. What started with a simple "hello World" has become a full-fledged passion that only gets more exciting as the years go by. Below you'll find projects I've completed that showcase my skills and general background in developing software.
